Black Knight Asset Management Names Joe Seymour head of DC/401(k) Business Development

Washington, DC, June 11, 2008-- Black Knight Asset Management announced today that Joe Seymour has joined the firm as Senior Vice President, and Director of Business Development for the Firm's 401(k) and Defined Contribution business efforts. Mr. Seymour will report to Daryl Dennis, CFA, President and CEO of Black Knight.

"We have been conducting an extensive search for a sales leader in the defined contribution market segment to compliment our success in the defined benefit market and have determined that Joe is the right person to lead Black Knight's efforts," Mr. Dennis said. "Joe's extensive experience and familiarity with the institutional and advisor defined contribution markets will be a great asset as will build our Stable Value Fund business."

Mr. Seymour has joined Black Knight with more than 25 years of senior marketing and sales leadership experience at leading financial services firms, including Regional Sales Manager at Lincoln Financial; Senior Vice President and National Sales Manager at AIM Investments; Senior Vice President and National Marketing Director at Oppenheimer Capital; and Senior Vice President, National Marketing Director at Kidder, Peabody & Co.

"I am excited about the opportunity to join a firm with the track record of Black Knight and marshal our stable value efforts in the defined contribution market," Mr. Seymour said. "In light of the ongoing fixed income crisis and the demographics of defined contribution plan participants, stable value funds should play an increasingly important role as a 401(k) plan investment option."
